FLOOR DEBATE

January 23, 2004 LB 304

have--that you were speaking in the realm of a criminal investigation. And as Senator Mossey indicated, this bill, the purpose of the bill, the intent of the bill, is to address administrative hearings only and administrative investigations only, in terms of a police officer's conduct. And I think, how do you define the difference between a criminal and administrative hearing, would be, if the police officer is in violation of department rules and regulations it would be an administrative arena; if they are in violation of criminal law I would suspect then that that would be in the criminal court arena. Just want to also emphasize, a good number of states have recognized the uniqueness of police officers in our society, the uniqueness of their job duties and responsibilities, and have adopted this sort of legislation. And again, I would continue to encourage members to have an open mind, to support our police officers in the state of Nebraska. I think it's important that we have this as a public policy mechanism. I rise against the...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: ...motion to recommit, and I would encourage the members to adopt the first in a series of amendments, amendment FA1419. Thank you, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Synowiecki. Senator Chambers, on your motion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I want to ask our police officer in residence, Senator Mossey, a question or two.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Mossey, would you respond?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Mossey, I will begin the question as you get to your mike. You had said that matters that I raised about police shootings were criminal matters. Are you saying that the Omaha Police Department does not undertake administrative inquiries when there is a police shooting that results in a death? Is that what you're saying?
